

Adobe Acrobat ETLA

UC has an agreement for the Adobe Acrobat *Enterprise Term License Agreement * (ETLA) program. The ETLA agreement provides annual Acrobat licenses for whole departments only that include: updates and upgrades for the current agreement term, pricing based upon number of faculty and administrative staff FTE in the department, the ability to install on new computers mid-year at no additional cost, lab computer installations included at no additional cost, and work at home rights for eligible faculty and staff for work-related purposes. Please contact Software Central for eligible buy in dates if your department is interested in participating in this agreement. Further information can be found at <https://softwarecentral.ucla.edu/acrobat-etla>.
