Web Services Resources for Programmers

Interested in doing web service development? Here are some useful links:

- Top Ten FAQs for Web Services) – This is a pretty good primer article from the O'Reilly Network (http://www.oreillynet.com) on Web Services. Lots of useful links.
- Understanding SOAP – This recent MSDN article provides a very good overview what SOAP is all about as well as where the technology is going. If you are working with SOAP or are thinking of using SOAP, this is a must read.
- Java Web Services Tutorial
- Web Services Security School – requires registration, but otherwise free.
