I have some data from my own research. Who can help me archive the data?

The best place to go on campus is the ISSR Data Archive. For more information on data preparation and preservation click on this link: https://www.library.ucla.edu/social-science-data-archive/about-data-archive

---