

How do I find tech support on this campus?

Depending on which department, division or school you are in, and which service you are using, there are a variety of sources of computer support. Below is the beginning of a collection of sources of support.

- BruinTech - coordinating site for campus computer information, including community, services, activities etc.
- Help Desk Directory
- Computer Support Coordinator Directory
- BruinOnline - a collection of services that provides UCLA students, faculty, and staff with:
 - Email
 - Web Hosting Services
 - Network Connectivity, including Wireless and VPN
 - Free Software and Support
- Medical IT Services
