

Video Furnace for Senior Scholars

Unfortunately, you can't watch video furnace links from off campus the way students can. You will have to come to campus and go to the CLICC Lab in the Powell Library Building or SSC Lab in the Public Affairs Building 2041. You should be able to get a lab ID at SSC to login to watch the videos.

Please note that for CLICC, you will need a UCLA Logon ID. CLICC cannot create a UCLA Logon for you.

Karen Rushfield may have more information about getting a UCLA Logon ID or you may visit "<http://www.bol.ucla.edu/>

You can find out more information about the CLICC Lab here: <http://www.clicc.ucla.edu/>
