

Where can I find information about statistical computing?

The statistical computing group is a team of four UCLA staff members who help UCLA researchers with problems with statistical computing using packages such as SAS, Stata, or SPSS. We offer a variety of services, including web pages on statistical computing, statistics books for loan, online classes and seminars, walk-in consulting and email consulting.

<http://www.ats.ucla.edu/stat/overview.htm>

Revision #1

Created Tue, Jun 13, 2006 5:54 PM by Kong, Caroline

Updated Tue, Jun 13, 2006 5:54 PM by Kong, Caroline