

Microsoft Translator for real-time captioning

Microsoft Translator is an AI-powered automatic speech recognition software tool. It can be useful for real-time captioning with the ability to export a transcript when you are done:

<https://translator.microsoft.com/>.

You will need an Office365.com account and it looks like it is free. Be sure you test your mics before launching the program (via web browser for app).

Revision #3

Created 2018-09-19 17:51:23 UTC by Kong, Caroline

Updated 2018-09-19 17:56:01 UTC by Kong, Caroline